Rev. W. J. Reynolds, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. E. W. Corbett, Mrs. F. E. Hyde, Miss Clara Hyde, Mrs. Clarence Whitaker, Mrs. M. S. Cater and Miss Katharine McKenzie attended the conference in Hanover Wednesday.

A program committee consisting of the choir and Sunday school teachers has been appointed to arrange for a children's day concert.

Newest church will be closed Sunday, May 23, as Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are to be at Mrs. Reynolds' former home near Albany, N. Y., for a few weeks. Rev. C. A. Northrup of Norwich will occupy the pulpit May 30.

Last Friday afternoon, while there was a downpour for nearly an hour at Newent, there was only a sprinkle in the southern part of the town and farmers were not obliged to give up their work in the field.

A very interesting meeting of the Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. A. F. Read Friday afternoon, May 14. The report of the last meeting was read by Mrs. R. E. Read, also the branch letter. There were readings by Miss Lucy Baldwin and Mrs. E. E. Hyde. Mrs. M. S. Cater of South Pasadena, Cal., told of the Spanish school for boys and girls in Los Angeles which the Missionary society and church in South Pasadena are supporting.

All the world loves a winner.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

In the town court Thursday morning, Jan Skorski, an employee at the mill of the Danielson Cotton company, pleaded guilty to the theft of cloth from the mill and was fined $7 and costs, which he paid. The specific charge against the defendant was taking ten pounds of cloth. The company has been losing material through thefts for some time past and a watch of the employees resulted in the arrest of Skorski. At the time Chief John MacFarland arrested the man it was found that he had several pieces of cloth in his pockets. At his home a trunk containing a large quantity of cloth was seized and brought to the police station, but much of this cloth was not identified as coming from the Danielson Cotton mill.

Assistant Postmaster Earl F. Winslow has resigned to take one with the Goodyear Mill company. Louis Wolard, another member of the local postal force, has also tendered his resignation as a clerk and will go to Washington to fill a position. As everywhere throughout the country, postal employees are dissatisfied with the low wages they are receiving. Here in Danielson the postal force is already short and it is necessary for the clerks to work much extra time each week, as does the postmaster.

At 8:30 Thursday morning an alarm from Box 23 called out the Captain Put engine company to extinguish a fire that blazed up about a tar kettle where some state road repair work was being done on Dyer street. What is known as the Cold Spring. Chemicals were used by the firemen to extinguish the blaze, which was quite spectacular for a few minutes. The damage was very small.

Cord wood of the hard varieties, is being quoted at $11 and $12 a cord to Danielson buyers. This is an increase from about $5 a cord four years ago. Even at the high prices now being asked wood is scarce and difficult to get.

Rose of Lima Council, E. of C., is arranging a big outing for its members, to be held on the Fourth of July. As plans are now, there will be a clambake. The committee of arrangements has not as yet worked out full details for the affair, but a royal good time is promised for all the members.

The state highway between Danielson and Putnam is the first in this section to receive a surface with oil this season. Oil has been applied on the section between a tawawaga and Putnam this week and has been sanded over. This stretch of highway has been in poor condition since it was torn up so badly at the end of the winter after being covered with ice and snow for many weeks. An effort is not being made to improve this route, which is heavily used by traffic.

The announcement that the Connecticut company is contemplating a trolley service from New London northward through this territory is of special interest here. Much business is done between the towns along the line from Norwich to Danielson and a trolley freight service would be appreciated.

At the Danielson Cotton company the work is being steadily run out and that company's operations likely will be (Continued on Page Seven, Col. Three)

PUTNAM

Louis Allen, 17, and John O'Neil, 19, were taken to the police station here on Thursday while Captain J. H. Bulger was awaiting a report on them from the police of their home city—Cambridge, Mass.

Allen and O'Neil were picked up at 1:30 Thursday morning in Union street by Night Patrolman Ernest Chandler. The youths told conflicting stories as to their arrival in this city and their purpose in coming here. One of them was carrying a large screw driver, about which they also told conflicting stories. They were locked up as suspicious characters. Inquiry at Cambridge developed that they gave their right names and addresses, but the police were not able to give off any information pertaining to them.

During Thursday afternoon they told Captain Bulger a variety of conflicting stories. One said the pair arrived here about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, coming on a motor truck from Providence, while the other insisted that they did not reach Putnam until 10:30 p. m. Wednesday. Neither had any money.

One said that the screw driver, with which the switch of a Ford car can be turned if one knows how, was found sticking up in a lawn just outside of this city; the other said that it was taken from a motor boat in Providence. Officials here were not inclined to proceed against the youths until they could learn more about them.

The police here received word Thursday morning that Alfred White, of this city, was being held for them by the Worcester police. White, who has suffered mentally at times in the past, and who has been a patient at the Norwich State Hospital, left here during the very early hours of Thursday morning on the northbound State of Maine express. Before leaving he gave indications that he was again suffering mentally. It was arranged that Selectman C. E. Pierce and Officer Ernest Chandler should go to Worcester and accompany White back to this city.

Putnam people heard with interest on Thursday of the tentative plan of the Connecticut company officials to establish a trolley freight and express service over the line of the New London division with the possibility of the service being extended as far north as this city and possible as far as Worcester. This is a project that has been talked of here for years without any service materializing, but there is hope in the fact that the subject is being revived.

On Saturday and Sunday, beginning at 11:30 a. m. and thereafter until 10 p. m. The Pelletie will maintain a half hourly service between Danielson and Putnam.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church was held Thursday afternoon at Miss Ruby Thornton's at Pleasant View. The officers elected were: President, Mrs. E. M. Gray; vice president, Mrs. G. H. Prior; secretary, Miss Alice A. Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Gardner; soloist, Mrs. William Johnston; treasurer of flower fund, Miss Mabel McBroom; chairman of work committee, Mrs. Emma Hane; directors, Mrs. Esther Fitch, Mrs. F. H. Gilbert, Mrs. N. J. Babcock, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. George Frink, Mrs. C. F. Gardner, Mrs. John Post, Mrs. Francis Campbell, Mrs. G. H. Prior, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Miss Ruby Thornton, Mrs. M. D. Fuller. Those who assisted Miss Thornton Thursday were Mrs. S. F. Brown, Mrs. Augusta Lee, Mrs. Solomon Paquette, Mrs. W. W. Barber and Mrs. Martin Davis. The society numbered seventy last year.

Mrs. H. C. Webster entertained the Ladies' society of the Congregational church Thursday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Whalley, Mrs. L. M. Carpenter and Mrs. E. H. Hixcox.

Miss Agnes McKenna of Needham, Mass., spent Thursday with Mrs. G. H. Prior.

Miss Mary A. Dumas and George Campbell were married at St. Anne's church in Glasgow Monday.

The stores in Jewett City close every Thursday afternoon, giving a weekly half holiday.

It was explained Thursday morning that an alarm for fire was pulled in early Wednesday evening, from Box 41, at the corner of Main and Front streets, because of a glare showing through the windows of Union hall, on the second floor of the Union block, indicating that the big structure was afire. A number of persons who saw the glare were convinced that the interior of the hall was afire. It was said that paper used in decorations and for favors at a recent entertainment was being burned in a stove in the hall and that when the door of the stove was opened that the glare showed through the windows. Others attributed the illusion that a fire was raging in the hall to a glare from one or two electric lights, including a red light marking an exit. In any event, the alarm stirred up much excitement and scores of people came scurrying out from the theatre and hundreds gathering from all directions, as Box 41 usually indicates a fire in the very heart of the city.

Clarence F. Bowen, of Woodstock, has been nominated to be a vice president of the Connecticut Historical society, which is to hold its annual meeting in the rooms of the society in Hartford next week.

A Washington despatch stated that a petition was received from citizens of Putnam favoring the enactment of a law granting postal employees an increase in wages commensurate with the increased cost of living.

Following the receipt from Leonard H. Healey, of North Woodstock, secretary of the state board of agriculture, of petitions signed by 21 farmers, milk producers and shippers residing in the territory served by the Pomfret and Abington stations and asking for the restoration of train No. 112 to its old schedule, the Public Utilities commission has ordered a hearing in the matter at the capitol in Hartford today Friday, at noon, daylight saving time.

An orchard demonstration is being made under the direction of County Agent Davis at the Frank Miller, farm at Woodstock Hill and is proving of interest to many in this section who are interested in fruit culture.

Carpenters being laid off at the shipyards in the vicinity of New London are coming into this section looking for employment. In other lines, it is stated, there is a larger supply of labor becoming visible in this section.

Walter J. Bartlett, G. Harold Gilpatrick, R. C. Bosworth, Mrs. F. J. Daniels and Miss Mary Wheaton constitute a committee of the Second Congregational church to carry on the Congregational World Movement for the local church.

Mrs. C. Russell Bowen had members of the Altar guild of St. Phil's church at her home on Grove street for a meeting, Thursday evening.

The Day of Pentecost will be Rev. S. J. A. Rook's subject at the services at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

It was announced by Rev. G. C. R. McKay of the Baptist church of this city that the latest figures show $19,000 in pledges here for the Interchurch World Movement. The quota of this church is set at $22,400.

Patriotic organizations of the city are to attend a Memorial service to be held at the Congregational church Sunday, May 23rd.

Warm days this week have brought forth a wonderful display of apple blossoms in this territory.

Wapping.—In the suit to decide whether the little estate left by the late Henry S. Cady of Wapping, amounting to $9,000, should go to the administrator to be disposed of among all the heirs, or whether it should all go to Mrs. E. P. Collin of Wapping, a sister, who claimed it all, Judge William M. Maltbie ruled that the cash goes to the estate.
